Couples will fall in love again with Off-Broadway's longest-running musical and comical celebration of the modern-day suburban mating game. It's everything anyone has ever secretly thought about dating, romance, marriage, lovers, husbands, wives and in-laws, but were afraid to admit. Get ready for Love & Marriage 101, set to fun music and familiar situations we can all relate to.

Written by playwright/lyricist Joe DiPietro and composer Jimmy Roberts, the show originally opened in 1996 and has since been performed over 4,500 times in over 400 cities worldwide, surpassing the Broadway runs of such musicals as "My Fair Lady," "Annie," "Oklahoma!," "Grease," and "Hello, Dolly!"

Four actors portray more than 60 roles in a collection of vignettes and songs covering the realm of male/female relationships, showcasing the hilarious trials and tribulations of romance, no matter what age.
